Who is this eBook for?

This eBook is for in-house functions of Irish and/or global organisations that have responsibility for their Group's Irish Subsidiary company secretarial and/or corporate governance compliance.

The intended purpose of this eBook is to encompass in one area everything that should be considered in ensuring an Irish Subsidiary is fully compliant with local (i.e. Irish) company law and corporate governance obligations.

Whilst it is not intended that this eBook is a 'company secretarial encyclopedia' it does aim to bring the expertise and in-house knowledge gained from working within, and servicing, large global organisations, as well as that gained as an Irish based independent corporate governance service provider.
