My Annual Return is due but I am working from home and cannot get my accounts signed or my signature page signed. What do I do?

The Registrar of Companies has decided that all annual returns due to be filed by any Company now and up to 30th June 2020 will be deemed to have been filed on time if all elements of the annual return are completed and filed by that date.

I have already filed my Annual Return and my signature page is due to be delivered to the CRO next week?

All Annual Return signature pages due to be delivered to the CRO up to the 30th June 2020 will be treated as received on time if they are received by close of business on 30th June 2020.

Can I still file online?

Please continue to file as normal during this period if you are in a position to do so.

Can I still file and sign with ROS?

You may complete the filing as normal using Revenue Online Services (ROS) signatures instead of a signature page, if you have a ROS signature.

Will my company be struck off if I don't file on time?

No, All Strike Off steps and procedures have been suspended until after 30th June 2020.

Will processing times be impacted?

Annual returns may not be processed within the usual timeframes, however, anything received will be queued and processed as soon as possible.

What will happen if I still can't file after 30th June?

The situation will be kept under review and the date of 30th June may be extended depending on the situation at that time.

Where do I get up to date information?
